INFORMATION

SUBJECT: SAN JOSE – A GREAT PLACE TO CALL HOME – ACTIVITY COLORING BOOK

Attached please find a copy of the newly developed coloring book created by the Housing Department with messages about homelessness, affordable housing, diversity and community mingled with activities such as, coloring, word scramble, crossword puzzles, etc. The book provides a vehicle for parents and children to interact and serves as a catalyst for discussions on the importance of housing for everyone. The book, targeted to kids ages seven to ten, will be distributed at community fairs, events such as Project Homeless Connect, Affordable Housing Week, and various workshops throughout the year.

If you would like additional copies of the coloring book, please contact Theresa Hayes by e-mail or at extension 58234.
